are not represented, there are now available such masterpieces, among others, as the "Three Crosses," the "Hundred Guilder" print, the "Three Trees," the "Vista" and the portraits of Jan Lutna, Jan Coriell, Sylvius.

The Rosenbach Company is showing an exhibition of rare books and manuscripts, English and French color prints, etchings by Whistler, paintings of the Barbizon school, antique furniture and other art objects at its new quarters, 273 Madison Avenue. The exhibition will continue until November 8.

Charles Daniel, 2 West Forty-seventh Street, announces a group of modern paintings as the opening exhibition for the season.

Konchakji Pères announce the removal of their gallery to the Ehrlich Building, 707 Fifth Avenue. A special exhibition of Greek and Roman bronzes, Bakka and Persian pottery, Greek, Roman and Byzantine jewelry will be on view until November 15.

The Touchstone Art Gallery, 11 West Forty-seventh Street, has on view its opening exhibition of the season, representing twenty-six exhibitors.

The Museum of French Art, French Institute in the United States, announces an exhibition of contemporary French paintings and etchings on November 3 at the gallery of the museum, 329 Fifth Avenue. The exhibit will be on view during November and December.

An exhibition of shipyard paintings by John O. Johansen is on view at the art gallery of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, New York. There are twenty-seven pictures in the collection, among them "First Ship of a New War Shipyard," "The Flying Carver of Bristol," lent by E. H. Harriman; "The Wooden Ship," "A War Shipyard, as Seen from the Cruisers," "A Gala Day at a Shipyard—Two Ships for the Water," two scenes of "The Fifty Shipways of Hog Island," "Riverboats on the Tank of a Ship," "Hog Island at Night," and others.

John C. Johansen was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, on November 23, 1876. He studied in the Art Institute, Chicago, and in Julian's Academy, Paris. His work has received recognition by many awards. It is represented in the National Gallery, Santiago, Chile; Art Institute, Chicago; several schools and clubs in Indiana and the Museum of Fine Arts, Syracuse.

A number of Association Books, collected by Edwin W. Coggeshall, will be sold at the Anderson Galleries Thursday evening, November 4. In 1916 Mr. Coggeshall sold his Dickens and Thackeray collections. Since then he has made a smaller collection of association books of these authors. No less than ten presentation copies from Dickens, several presentation copies from Thackeray, and Charles Dickens's own copy, with his bookplate, of Vanity Fair, with an autograph letter from Thackeray to Dickens. There are also association copies of Longfellow, Holmes (a presentation copy to Charles Dickens of The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table), Browning, Meredith and others.

Girls Must Know How to "Wear" Clothes if They Would Enter Film Work

Clothes don't make an actress, even in the movies, but they are a highly necessary adjunct to success on the screen, according to Alice Brady, and Miss Brady, who divides her time between her role in "Anna Karenina" at the Playhouse and her work before the motion picture camera, is well qualified to speak.

"It is almost hopeless," said Miss Brady, "for a girl, no matter how good looking or how talented she may be, to try to get a job in filmland, even as a wigman, or an extra, unless she has good clothes and knows how to wear them."

"Strangely enough, it is the extra people who most often require the most expensive clothes, and as they have to provide them for themselves it is foolish for any girl to leave a good position for the uncertainties of motion picture work."

"Despite the rapid growth of screen entertainment during the last few years, and the ever-increasing corps of actors and actresses needed for this branch of amusement, the fact remains that filmland is a very hard place for the uninitiated to break into."

"Although I would advise any girl looking toward a stage career to work, if she can, before the camera, where she will learn, if she be wise, a great many valuable things which she cannot learn otherwise, I do not advise any girl to embark on a career in the movies unless she has available a reasonably good wardrobe and, as well, the invaluable knack of wearing clothes properly."

"Extra people are chiefly needed for big scenes usually ballroom and society scenes, where the latest type of ball gown must be worn. Now, ball gowns are very expensive, and extra people are not highly paid. Any girl with common sense can draw her own conclusions. Clothes will never make an actress, but the lack of them may unmake her before she starts."

Ziegfeld Beauty for Goldwyn

Madeline Luberty is the latest beauty to be graduated from the Ziegfeld fold into motion pictures. She will have an important role in "Cardigan," by Robert W. Chambers.

However, Miss Luberty says that her favorite authors are Stevenson, Thackeray and Barrie.

"Hindle Wakes" on the Screen

A new picture called "Your Daughter and Mine," based on the play "Hindle Wakes," will be released by C. B. Price & Co. This picture will present the single standard in an entirely new light.

Percey Marmont With Paramount

Percey Marmont has gone to Lake Placid for a vacation. Before leaving he signed a contract with Famous Players. It was with Elsie Ferguson, a Paramount star, that Mr. Marmont made his screen debut three years ago.

Afternoon and Street Frocks

Of Velveteen—Tricoline—Satin

A Sale at $29.75

THIS IS A SALE event of keenest interest to women who seek the season's best models, who insist on fabrics of excellence and individual style, and who, withal, must consider price.

These frocks have been regularly $45 and $50, but following the decline of prices they were purchased from one of the best known New York makers at a sum that makes it possible to offer them at this reduction, the very lowest prices on women's frocks of this quality given this season.

Navy Brown Black and Combinations

Some are heavily embroidered in contrasting colored braids. Others are embroidered in self shades brightened by metal threads. The styles are varied from the redingote model to the Russian blouse and long waisted bodice effects.

Especially appropriate for street or afternoon wear and effective for informal affairs. There are many styles, but a scarcity of models in each style.

Sizes 34 to 44 and from 14 to 18 years.

Mid-Autumn's Better Blouses

$10 and $12.95 Values, Now $4.98

LOVELINESS of colors, beaded motifs and exquisite hand embroidery, are features which only the Blouse itself can convey and these three models are taken from 20 styles in Georgette, crepe de chine, and satin, which have sold all season from $10 to $12.95.

Pretty Suit Blouses

For instance one style is appropriate in color and design for suit and separate skirt wear. It is Georgette crepe handsomely headed and hand-embroidered with flat collar and square neck and long sleeves.

Blouses for Semi-formal Wear

Another of the lovelier blouses of crepe de chine in white, flesh and navy blue is in the over-bodice effect, its panel of pin tucking and fine picot-edged platings with dainty round collar finished youthfully by picot-ed plating.

Elaborate Blouses

Filet lace and finest pin tucks make the vestee of this attractive Blouse of Georgette crepe in white and flesh and the long sleeves add a novel finish in their cuffs and trimming.

There are all sizes but not a full selection in all styles.

Event Extraordinary!

Dainty Undermuslins

Hand Made—From the Philippines

Machine Made—From Best American Workers

Amazingly Low Priced

HERE ARE VALUES in Undermuslins that have not been seen for some years—probably not since before the war. They are going to surprise you—and delight you. The garments are just as fine as ever were sold at the full prices. They are of the softest material. They are of the daintiest workmanship. They are decorated in the most charming ways; hundreds of them with hand embroidery and the finest laces.

But the prices have been marked down regardless of cost or value. We mean to make November a month of extraordinary offerings and this is one of the first of them.

An Undermuslin Sale of this magnitude and of equal values has not before occurred at this season, at least within our memory. The garments will be arranged on Main Floor tables as well as in the regular department on the Second Floor.

It is a fine chance to buy for holiday gifts as well as for one's own use.

Philippine Hand Made Underwear

Remarkable Sale of High Grade

Men's Suits and Overcoats

At $36.50

Regularly $45 and $50

IF WE HAD purchased these garments a month or six weeks ago, as we usually do for this season of the year, we would have had to pay more than $36.50 for them at wholesale.

But we delayed buying—knowing that most men were looking for lowered prices and would probably wait until they did come down, and we expected that it would have its effect of bringing the change about.

Wholesale prices did come down.

Then we bought. This explains how we are enabled to offer these very fine garments, really worth $45 and $50, for the exceptionally low price of $36.50. Yes, fine garments! The kind that men like who insist on quality as well as style in their clothes. And these men are not going to lose any time in getting here for them.

All the wanted new fabrics, patterns and colorings are in this collection, in many models, to meet the individual tastes of both young men and older men.

Come early and get the benefit of the full variety!
